

Darwin Initiative Workshop
Wednesday 3 October 2007

Natural History Museum***
Cromwell Road
London
SW7 5BD

Time	Session	Activity	Prospective Speakers
0930 - 1000	Registration	Tea and coffee
1000 - 1015	Introduction and Welcome	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Introduction and overview of the workshop</li> <li>• Welcome</li> </ul>	Prof David Macdonald Chairman, Darwin Advisory Committee  Eric Blencowe Defra
1015 - 1215	Plenary I	'Conservation and the management of human-wildlife conflict'	15-040 'Building Capacity to alleviate Human- Elephant conflict and promote tolerance of elephants in Laikipia District, Kenya  Professor Bill Adams University of Cambridge
	Plenary II	Can the bush meat trade be sustainable and support livelihoods?	12-002 'Capacity building for Monitoring and Managing the Bushmeat trade in Gabon'  Dr Kate Abernethy University of Stirling and Ms Anne Marie Ndong Obiang Gabonese Darwin Fellow currently in the UK
1215 - 1315	Lunch	Participants network over lunch
1315 - 1415	Plenary III	Planning for sustainable pro-diversity businesses	Mr Alistair Leadbetter Business Services Coordinator Traidcraft
1415 - 1445	Plenary IV	Sustainable use: tangible community benefits via certification	11-004 'Conserving Kenya's indigenous forests through certification of sustainably sourced wood carvings'  Dr David Hoyle WWF
1445 - 1515	Plenary V	Supporting livelihoods in conservation projects: experiences from the field.	Ms Lizzie Wilder  Fauna and Flora International

* Entry via the Earth Galleries entrance on Exhibition Road

Time	Session	Activity	Prospective Speakers
1515 - 1615 (inc tea break)	Seminars	Participants break into discussion group to debate issues presented during the Plenary sessions. Participants are encouraged to join their preferred discussion group.
	Seminar a)	Using and controlling wildlife – field level conservation making livelihoods sense.	Rob Wild Facilitator ECTF
	Seminar b)	Best practice on livelihoods: brainstorm on the Darwin Initiative's Livelihoods Guidelines	Kerry ten Kate Facilitator
	Seminar c)	Trade & certification - taking a market approach: challenges for DI Projects	Paul van Gardingen Facilitator ECTF
1615 - 1630	Seminar Feedback and Wrap Up		Defra
1630 – 1645	Concluding remarks		Defra